

UCSF Office of the Chancellor – 2025 Policy Notification

Each year, UCSF provides an annual notification of important policies and guidelines to the UCSF community. Listed below are policies and guideline summaries which you are encouraged to review. Questions and concerns should be directed to your supervisor, department manager, and/or the department(s) listed under the resources for the respective policy/guideline.

- UCSF Code of Conduct

The UCSF Code of Conduct articulates the values and ethical practices collectively prized by the UCSF campus community. It expresses UCSF's commitment to teaching, patient care, research, and business operations based on the highest ethical principles. In addition, it declares the expectation that all members of the campus community will exercise integrity and highly ethical conduct when making their contribution to the organization.

- UCSF Principles of Community

The faculty, staff, students, postdoctoral scholars, trainees, alumni, volunteers, patients, vendors, and visitors of the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF) represent many diverse characteristics, beliefs, and affiliations. UCSF seeks to offer all campus community members an equitable, inclusive, welcoming, secure, responsive, and affirming environment that fosters mutual respect, empathy, and trust. To nurture this environment, several principles of community have been established to guide campus life at UCSF. Adherence to these principles is essential to ensure the integrity of the University and to achieve campus goals of a diverse, open and inclusive community.

- All are asked to acknowledge and practice the basic UCSF Principles of Community

- UCSF PRIDE Values

The acronym PRIDE stands for Professionalism, Respect, Integrity, Diversity and Excellence, important core values for everyone who works, learns, teaches, and discovers at UCSF. This set of overarching values aligns with UCSF Principles of Community

- UCSF Policy on Violence and Bullying

- UC Policy on Abusive Conduct in the Workplace

The UCSF Policy on Violence and Bullying aligns with and reinforces expectations of behavior set forth in the UCSF Code of Conduct, UCSF Pride Values, and UCSF Principles of Community. UCSF is committed to maintaining a safe environment that is free from bullying, intimidation, threats, and/or acts of violence. When faced with such situations, UCSF will take prompt steps to assess, investigate allegations, and/or take remedial actions as the University deems appropriate to protect the rights of the UCSF community, including but not limited to faculty/non-faculty academics, staff, volunteers, and learners. All reported incidents will be reviewed and investigated as appropriate.

The UC Policy on Abusive Conduct in the Workplace addresses the University's responsibilities and procedures related to Abusive Conduct and Retaliation for reporting, or participating in, an investigation or other process provided for in this policy. The University will respond to reports of Abusive Conduct in accordance with timelines set forth in this policy, and will take appropriate action to stop, prevent, correct, and discipline behavior that violates this policy.

- UCSF Alcohol Policy

This policy governs consumption of alcoholic beverages for events on University properties (owned or leased), including UCSF-owned student and faculty housing, as well as off premises when directed, managed, or supervised by the University of California, San Francisco, regardless of the source of funding for the event. In every instance where alcohol is made available, the individuals and organizations involved are responsible for compliance with all applicable local, state, and federal laws; this policy; and other applicable University policies, procedures, and regulations. This policy also applies to all private events sponsored by non-campus groups held on University properties (owned or leased). It does not apply to parties in private residences.

- UC Policy on Reporting Child Abuse and Neglect (CANRA)

The California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act (CANRA) requires that employers of Mandated Reporters (as defined in the Act) promote identification and reporting of child abuse or neglect. This policy complies with existing California law and with amendments that took effect on January 1, 2013.

Some University positions, such as health care professionals, employees of law enforcement agencies, and athletic coaches, are Mandated Reporters under the law. These Mandated Reporters are required under the law to report observed or suspected child abuse to local Child Protective Services offices or law enforcement agencies. They are also required to sign a form acknowledging that they understand this important obligation. All members of the University community who observe, have actual knowledge of, or reasonably suspect child abuse or neglect at a University facility or perpetrated by University personnel are encouraged to promptly report the concern to appropriate external and University officials.

- 2024-2025 Annual Security Report & Annual Fire Safety Report (Clery Act)

Please see the links below to the UCSF Annual Security Report and UCSF Annual Fire Safety Report, produced in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Act. The security report includes statistics for the previous three calendar years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus buildings owned or controlled by the University, and on public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. This report also includes institutional policies concerning campus security, alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, timely warning of crimes, sexual and interpersonal violence, and personal safety at UCSF. The fire report includes UCSF's fire reporting statistics and policies.

These publications were produced in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Act, which requires colleges and universities receiving federal financial aid funding to disclose reported instances of criminal activity on their campuses. This legislation also states that a copy of these publications must be made available to all current and prospective students and employees.

- UC Policy on Anti-Discrimination

The University of California is committed to maintaining a community dedicated to the advancement, application, and transmission of knowledge and creative endeavors through academic excellence, where all people who participate in University programs and activities can work and learn together in an atmosphere free of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. This Policy addresses the University's responsibilities and procedures related to Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation, in order to ensure equitable and inclusive education and employment environments. This Policy defines Prohibited Conduct and explains the administrative procedures the University uses to resolve reports of such conduct. The University will respond promptly and equitably to reports of Prohibited Conduct. This includes action to stop, prevent, correct, or discipline behavior that violates this Policy.

- UCSF Policy 600-27: Expressive Activities Held on UCSF Property

Free and open expression is a constitutional right under the First Amendment. It is the policy of UCSF to ensure that the exercise of free and open expression on “University property” is at all times conducted in compliance with First Amendment rights, with orderly and civil behavior that ensures public safety, and in a manner that does not disrupt University operations or damage University property. All individuals or organizations using University Property for Expressive Activities must avoid any unauthorized implication that they are sponsored, endorsed, or favored by the University.

- Read the UCSF Policy on Expressive Activities Held on UCSF Property

- UC Gender Recognition and Lived Name Policy

The University of California will ensure that all individuals have university-issued identification documents and displays of personal identification information that recognize their accurate gender identity and lived name (first name, middle name, and/or last name or surname). This policy requires that the University provide the minimum three equally recognized gender options on University-issued documents and IT Resource systems – woman, man, and nonbinary – and an efficient process for current students and employees and UC alumni and affiliates to retroactively amend their gender designations and lived names on university-issued documents and in IT Resource systems. The legal name, if different than the individual’s lived name, must be kept confidential and not be published on documents that do not require a person’s legal name. The policy also establishes specific standards for the collection and reporting of gender identity, lived name, and sexual orientation.

- Read the UC Policy on UC Gender Recognition and Lived Name

- UCSF Policy on Information Security and Confidentiality

This policy governs the security and confidentiality of UCSF Electronic Information Resources (EIR). UCSF will protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of restricted or sensitive information when such information is created, received, transmitted, and/or stored in any medium, including electronic or paper format, and will ensure that the handling of such information is consistent with federal and state laws and regulations and university policies. Each member of the campus community is responsible for the security and protection of EIRs over which he or she has control.

- Read the UCSF Policy on Information Security and Confidentiality

- UCSF Key Badge Policy and Employee Identification Policy

These policies require anyone with a UCSF ID badge to badge in at their primary UCSF location when reporting to work. This will assist the University in determining which individuals are physically present on-site and assist with health monitoring and compliance. The badge swipe data does not replace current timekeeping tools. UCSF embraces and follows UC policy regarding preferred and lived names in accordance with UC’s Gender Recognition and Lived Name (see below) policy with regard to the names listed on ID badges. UCSF will provide options for using first and last name initials on ID badges when permitted to do so. UCSF also provides options for lived names on ID badges, and when a legal name is required due to job licensure requirements, it will be printed on the back of the ID badge (non-public facing).

- UC Policy on Native American Cultural Affiliation and Repatriation

The purpose of this policy is to increase and achieve the Repatriation of Native American and Native Hawaiian ancestral Human Remains and Cultural Items to Tribes, Native Hawaiian Organizations, and Lineal Descendants.

The University of California (UC) is committed to fully implementing the spirit as well as the legal requirements of both the federal Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (“NAGPRA”) and the California Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (“CalNAGPRA”), which were enacted to acknowledge the fundamental human rights of Native Americans and Native Hawaiians to their ancestral Human Remains and Cultural Items. This policy describes how UC will pursue this value and ensure both adherence to the general principles and compliance with NAGPRA and CalNAGPRA. The procedures set out in this policy are intended to increase Repatriation, accountability, and transparency. Where processes or definitions vary between NAGPRA and CalNAGPRA both are provided, with indications regarding the origin of the requirements

- UCSF Policy on Nondiscrimination Regarding Language Spoken in the Workplace

The policy of the University of California and of UCSF is clear and in concert with Federal EEOC guidelines, which state that prohibiting employees from speaking their native language in the workplace constitutes discrimination. It is the University’s policy to comply fully with these guidelines, and employees are free to speak their native languages to their co-workers and friends in the workplace.

- UCSF Policy on Workforce Sanctions for Patient Privacy Violations

Patients of the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF) have both a reasonable and legal right to the privacy and confidentiality of their personal health information. UCSF has patient privacy and confidentiality policies and procedures in place to guide and direct the workforce on appropriate access, use, and disclosure of patients' protected health information.

This policy describes the sanctions to be taken by UCSF when workforce members fail to comply with the patient privacy and confidentiality policies/procedures of the University of California and UCSF. This policy applies to any patient health information obtained and/or used inappropriately during the course and scope of work at UCSF. In addition to the corrective action defined in this policy, fines may be imposed by regulatory agencies, and civil actions by third parties outside of UCSF may be undertaken against UCSF workforce members.
